CHAPEL: The chapel offering for the fourth quarter will support the Concordia Comfort Dog Ministry.

Zoey is now semi-retired and will turn 12½ next month. Although she no longer participates in much outreach, she continues to visit campus 2–3 times per week, offering comfort and support to our students and staff.

Sage is an LCC (Lutheran Church Charities) Comfort Dog who primarily serves Concordia's pre-Occupational Therapy program. His presence is a steady source of encouragement and care for members of our campus community.

Runner, whose verse is Hebrews 12:1b–2a, received his training at Paws With A Cause in Michigan. He is significantly larger than Zoey—about 75 pounds—and is known for his affectionate, comforting nature. Runner serves the School of Education, particularly within their trauma-informed care program. Each school year, ten new students are trained as handlers and go on to develop and implement their own outreach programs, typically in schools or nursing homes.

Finally, we are excited to welcome Trixie, the newest member of Concordia's Comfort Dog team. Trixie serves in the Veteran Services office and was trained at a facility in Iowa. The staff there are enthusiastic to become part of the expanding comfort dog ministry on our campus.

Thank you for supporting this meaningful mission through your offerings.
